Goblin

Similar to the trolls these are people who are willing to be random grunts. They will be issued a bright coloured bandana to wear when they are willing to be pulled for manual labor. These people could be pulled for any work by any staff member when wearing the bandana.

These people would be willing to take scheduled tasks such as tidying or cleaning up areas around the campground. This can include things like helping clean up the fire pit areas in the mornings, stacking wood for fires, cleaning up the beach, or cleaning up after children's programming.
